2019 Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA)

Next weekend, the 2019 Catholic Ministries Appeal will kick off throughout the archdiocese. The CMA is our opportunity each year to support the work of six vital ministries and their many programs, all of which operate right here in our archdiocese.

Also, if we exceed our parish goal for the CMA, 50% of our overage comes back to the parish to be used toward a parish ministry that we have selected: activity to which over-goal funds will be directed will go to the support of stained glass windows here in our parish, so be as generous as you can.

Please prayerfully consider supporting this year's CMA. Your generosity serves as a witness of Christ's love for thousands of people throughout our archdiocese. For more information, please visit CatholicAppeal.info. Thank you!

History of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati

In total, the Archdiocese of Cincinnati encompasses 230 parishes in 19 counties, as of 2005, with the total membership of baptized Catholics around 500,000. The Archdiocese administers 110 associated parochial schools and diocesan elementary schools. The mother church is the Cathedral of St. Peter in Chains, located at the corner of 8th and Plum Streets in Downtown Cincinnati.

Cincinnati is the metropolis of the Ecclesiastical Province of Cincinnati, which encompasses the entire state of Ohio and is composed of the Archdiocese and its five suffragan dioceses: Cleveland, Columbus, Steubenville, Toledo, and Youngstown.

The Archdiocese of Cincinnati is bordered by the Diocese of Toledo to the north, the Diocese of Columbus to the east, the Diocese of Covington to the south, and the Archdiocese of Indianapolis and Diocese of Lafayette to the west.

I do not promise you happiness in this world, but in the next."*—Our Lady of Lourdes

It is sometimes difficult to live in acceptance of the world as the 'valley of tears,' and yet remain joyful and delight genuinely in the gifts and truly good things we may experience in it. Our Lady of Lourdes knows deeply our desire for happiness and freedom from sorrows. She reminds Bernadette that the world cannot offer us this happiness and freedom that we truly seek. This is an important reflection to make as we journey through the hardships and temptations of this life. The Blessed Mother's words are not meant to be discouraging—they are meant to direct our hearts to the place where they may find fulfillment. We are right to be grateful for and delight in the goods that the Lord sends to us in this world, however we remember them as a reflection of His Supreme Goodness and the eternal kingdom that he calls us to. Further, it is the state of this world that suffering will necessarily be a part of our pilgrimage. We are called to accept this as our lot without losing heart, fully alive, to follow faithfully in Christ's footsteps to true happiness.
