Are you new here?

Welcome! Whether you recently moved here or are just visiting, we are happy that you are here with us. If you would like to join one of our Parishes, please contact the parish office for a registration form.

There are some incredible Holy Moments in today's Gospel. Every day and with every step the Magi took to follow the star to honor Jesus, was a Holy Moment. Will you seek Jesus? Will you go to whatever length is needed to be with him?

So how do I be a Christian in the world today? How do I make goodness, love, mercy and generosity be known? One Holy Moment at a time. Seriously, one moment at a time. That's all it takes.

Ask Father Shawn

Question: Outside of Lent, if you eat meat on Friday and don't do another penance what kind of sin is it? Mortal or venial?

Answer: Penance is an important part of the spiritual life. Jesus said in Mark 2:20, ‘The days will come, when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast on that day.’ By historical standards, and in comparison to many Eastern Rite Catholics, the requirements for fasting for Roman Catholics are extremely minimal. We are encouraged to do more than the minimum to build self-discipline and detachment from self-indulgence.

Fasting on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday and abstaining from eating meat on Fridays of Lent is a ‘serious obligation,’ which means it is a mortal sin to completely disregard these requirements. It is not a sin to accidentally eat meat on one of those days, but care should be taken to prevent that. It would be a venial sin to generally follow the requirements but to deliberately violate the law in a specific case.

Canons 1249-1253 of the Code of Canon Law require Catholics 14 and older to abstain from meat every Friday of the year (unless it is a solemnity, like Christmas). National bishop conferences have a right to adapt this requirement, which the US bishops have done. Outside of Lent, the US bishops maintain Friday as being a day of penance, and they urge Catholics to abstain from meat on Fridays or to do some other suitable penance. However, Friday penance outside of Lent is not mandated under penalty of sin.

If we strive for spiritual growth and perfection, we will do well to heed the bishop's request to abstain from meat, or do some other suitable penance, on Fridays throughout the year. We should go beyond the minimum required, but not to extremes that would jeopardize our health.
