The Practices of Lent

Christ's 40 days in the desert inspire us to reflect upon our living and strive to grow closer to him. In undertaking this interior renewal, we must take concrete steps towards the purification of our hearts, such as fasting. As John Paul II noted:

May this day of prayer and fasting for peace with which we begin Lent be translated into concrete acts of reconciliation. From the family circle to the international realm, may each person feel and be co-responsible for building peace. Then the God of peace who examines the intentions of hearts and calls his children to be peacemakers (cf. Mt 5,9) will not fail to reward us (cf. Mt 6, 4.6.18).

The continuity between the Old Testament and the symbolism of Lent also translates to the practices which we undertake during this time. In the Old Testament, God's people followed a tradition of covering themselves in ashes during times of mourning, contrition, and penance. On Ash Wednesday, the faithful cover their foreheads with a cross of ashes as a reminder of our contrite hearts, and the penance which we undertake during Lent. Prayer for Renewal s we begin the season of Lent, let us pray that God restores us, cleansing and renewing our hearts:

*Turn away your face from my sins;
 blot out all my iniquities.
 A clean heart create for me, God;
 renew within me a steadfast spirit.
 Do not drive me from before your face,
 nor take from me your holy spirit.
 Restore to me the gladness of your salvation;
 uphold me with a willing spirit...
 My sacrifice, O God, is a contrite spirit;
 a contrite, humbled heart, O God, you will not scorn.*

—Psalm 51: 11-14, 19
