Communal Reconciliation Liturgies

Most parishes have these a couple of times a year, and especially during Lent. The communal reconciliation liturgy enforces the idea that all that we do, for good or ill, has an effect on the whole Body of Christ. It also focuses on the fact that sacraments, even the sacrament of reconciliation, are not designed to be individual events, but are to be celebrated in the context of the community. From this perspective, it is important to remain praying for one another until all have celebrated the sacrament, and then to conclude by celebrating God's forgiveness together.

PEACE CORNER COMPANIONSHIP

May God bless you on ordinary days, gracing you with an awareness of the beauty of everyday, the comfort of the common place, and the awe of life as usual. May you hear the invitation to new excitement over the constancy of God's care for you and to profound thanksgiving for God's faithful presence. May the God of ordinary days, your COMPANION God, bless you.
