5th Thursday Latin Mass

As many of you know, we had previously celebrated a 5th Thursday Traditional Latin Mass at St. Patrick. The Traditional Latin Mass refers to the Mass (last updated in 1962) before the changes of Vatican II. Many of our parishioners valued that greatly. They benefited spiritually from the ancient Mass as it was for centuries before the changes of Vatican II. Pope Francis recently restricted the use of that form of the Mass, so it can no longer be offered publicly at St. Patrick. It is only offered at 'designated parishes.'

Some of our parishioners have requested that we do a 5th Thursday Novus Ordo Latin Mass instead. What does that mean? The Mass after the liturgical changes of Vatican II, finalized in 1973, is called the Novus Ordo (New Order) of Mass. The Traditional Latin Mass was always done in Latin. The Novus Ordo can be done in any approved language, including either English or Latin. The Latin Novus Ordo Mass is exactly the same ritual and prayers as the Mass we do in English, only it's in Latin.

Our Parish Council recently approved the idea of having a 5th Thursday Latin Novus Ordo Mass. That begins March 31. We will still have the readings in English, but the Eucharistic Prayer and other parts will be in Latin. We will have pamphlets with the English/Latin side by side if people wish to follow along.

God Bless,

FATHER SHAWN LANDENWITCH

Prayer for Ukraine

God of infinite mercy and peace, we pray for the people of Ukraine who are experiencing fear, violence and death. We entrust all their families to You, and we pray that they may not yield to discouragement or despair but be heralds of hope. Blessed Virgin Mary, Our Lady of Zarvaniza, spread your maternal mantle over all people of goodwill who live in the great nation of Ukraine. We pray in this moment of crisis that people throughout the world may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Bring peace to all troubled hearts. We ask this through our Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.
