Foot Washing

The foot washing on Holy Thursday may seem somewhat anachronistic. The church has kept it in the liturgy for good reason. As Christ washed the feet of his disciples at the Last Supper, emphasizing for them the connection between Eucharist and service to others, this ritual remains in our liturgy for the same reason.

It is to emphasize that Eucharist is not separate from service, but that they are inextricably bound together. Part of the nature of receiving Holy Communion is acknowledging that we are intimately connected to one another and responsible for one another's well-being. The essential nature of Holy Communion is unity, not only with God, but also with one another. This is to be demonstrated through service.

PEACE CORNER FAITHFULNESS

May God who knows your GRIEF bless you with the gradual awareness that there is no dying that cannot be transformed into life beyond imagining. May God rise and be revealed to you in your loss just as surely as the flower emerges from the dying seed and the butterfly from the abandoned cocoon. May this ever faithful God be with you and gently stir hope into your grieving. May the FAILFUL God bless you. Sister Maxine Shonk, OP
