Marriage Youth & Family News Prayers for Teens:

Sheep are easy prey and they are quick to panic, but they actually do recognize and follow their shepherds' voice. Like sheep, sometimes we follow the herd into trouble rather than stop and listen for the guiding voice. There's a tender, protective tone from Jesus here that reminds us of the way he loves us and the kind of relationship we will have access to if we will only listen to our shepherd's voice. Think of some of the ways you can get better at listening for Jesus' voice in your life. John 10:27-30 (Sunday Prayers for Teens, LTP 2015-2016)

On the Way Home from Mass - How do sheep know they are following their own shepherd? How does the shepherd know them so well? (Celebrating Sunday's for Catholic Families 2015-16, LTP)

GOD WITHIN May you be blessed by God when you begin to feel the pangs of resentment or envy. In those times may you open your own heart and see the utter uniqueness of your existence. May you see yourself as God sees you...beautifully and wonderfully made...in God's very image! May you see the eyes of God gazing back at you with eternal pride and ever unconditional love. May these be the eyes with which you gaze upon those around you. May the GOD WITHIN be blessing for you. By Sister Maxine Shonk, OP
