Marriage, Youth & Family News Prayers for Teens:

Love one another. It's as easy as that- no problem. Well, maybe there's a little bit of a problem. We love our families, our friends, all the people we get along with or who love us back. What about those who don't share our points of view? Or those who mistreat us? Is Jesus' commandment now that easy? We may start out wanting to love others but we end up judging them, or excluding them. Sometimes we gossip about them or even bully them. We have the ability to love like Jesus - selflessly, patiently, with a capacity for forgiveness - but so many times we choose not to. It's also so much harder to feel love for people who aren't so nice to us. Make a list of words that describe the way Jesus loved others. In the week ahead see how close you can get to loving others in that way. John 13:31-33a,34-35 (Sunday Prayers for Teens, LTP 2015-2016

BLESSED SLUMBER

May God be with you in your sleeplessness. May the thoughts and tensions on your mind or in your heart let go of you for a time and make room for peaceful slumber and refreshment. And may you let go into the heart of God all that concerns you and weighs upon you. Kept safely in God's care, may all be transformed into grace and blessing for your life. May the heart of God bring you BLESSED SLUMBER. By Maxine Shonk, OP
