The Octave of Easter

The days of the week following Easter are such an important part of the Easter celebration that they are all designated as solemnities. Usually the only days with that designation are major feasts of the Lord, or of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Because of the importance of Easter, all the days between Easter and the next Sunday are also considered solemnities. The Gloria is always used for solemnities.

PEACE CORNER CONSOLATION

May God make you holy in your DISEASE, in those places that are uncomfortable and disconcerting. May you experience the wonder of God's consolation in all that disturbs you and the soothing presence of God's nurture in all that is unsettled about your life. As you anchor yourself in the peace that only God can give, may you be peace to all those in turmoil around you. May the God of CONSOLATION bless you.
Sister Maxine Shonk, OP
