Prayers for Teens: Whenever, I ask a group of teenagers to share their favorite story about Jesus this one always comes up. "So much food!" they exclaim. I think one of the reasons this is also such a memorable miracle story is the "go big" nature of it. Jesus doesn't just give the hungry crowds a little to tide them over, but fills them with so much food there are leftovers. Can you imagine filling up on all your favorite foods? People around the world live in poverty and hunger and don't have the abundant choices that you do. Try fasting one day this week: go without a meal or two and pray for the hungry of the world. What does it feel like to have nothing or little to eat? Visit Catholic Relief Services online and find out how you can help feed the hungry. Luke 9:12-17 (Sunday Prayers for Teens, LTP 2015-2016)

On the Way Home from Mass - Why did Jesus feed the crowd instead of sending them home? What does he want us to know about him? (Celebrating Sunday's for Catholic Families 2015-16, LTP)

SUMMER: *May the God of SUMMER be with you, enveloping you with the warmth of love, filling your heart with the brilliance of light, refreshing you and cooling you in the living water of God's grace. In the shade of God's guiding, protective presence, may your deepened experience of this presence draw others to God's warm, refreshing love. May the blessing of SUMMER be with you. THE POPE'S WORLDWIDE PRAYER NETWORK,

MAY 2016... "O Blessed Rosary of Mary, sweet chain which unites us to God, bond of love which unites us to the angels, tower of salvation against the assaults of Hell, safe port in our universal shipwreck, we will never abandon you. You will be our comfort in the hour of death: yours our final kiss as life ebbs away. And the last word from our lips will be your sweet name, O Queen of the Rosary, O dearest Mother." --from a prayer by Bl. Bartolo Longo

Rest in the Peace of Christ Father Pat:
We remember our dear Father Patrick Sheridan, who passed on to glory and is remembered with love and held in our prayers.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is also known as the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, which translates from Latin to "Body of Christ." This feast originated in France in the mid-thirteenth century and was extended to the whole Church by Pope Urban IV in 1264. This feast is celebrated on the Thursday following the Trinity Sunday or, as in the USA, on the Sunday following that feast. This feast calls us to focus on two manifestations of the Body of Christ, the Holy Eucharist and the Church.

The primary purpose of this feast is to focus our attention on the Eucharist. The opening prayer at Mass calls our attention to Jesus' suffering and death and our worship of Him, especially in the Eucharist. At every Mass our attention is called to the Eucharist and the Real Presence of Christ in it. The secondary focus of this feast is upon the Body of Christ as it is present in the Church. The Church is called the Body of Christ because of the intimate communion which Jesus shares with his disciples. He expresses this in the gospels by using the metaphor of a body in which He is the head. This image helps keep in focus both the unity and the diversity of the Church.

The Feast of Corpus Christi is commonly used as an opportunity for public Eucharistic processions, which serves as a sign of common faith and adoration. Our worship of Jesus in His Body and Blood calls us to offer to God our Father a pledge of undivided love and an offering of ourselves to the service of others.

FORMED is a "Netflix" of trustworthy and dynamic Catholic teaching. It offers beautiful opportunities for family conversations, faith-sharing small groups, Bible studies, RCIA, youth ministry, marriage prep/enrichment, sacramental overviews for youth and adults, prayer and devotion, and Catholic films about the lives of the saints. FORMED is a perfect way for you to personally explore the beauty and truth of the Catholic faith, or to be better able to accompany your family and friends who have for whatever reason fallen away from it.
