Prayers for Teens:

Seems harsh doesn't it? Jesus doesn't make true discipleship sound like an easy path to follow. As you grow toward young adulthood, your responsibilities and commitments grow, too. But Jesus' point here is not that you shouldn't honor your commitments and take care of your responsibilities, but that you can't let them get in the way of following him. How do you put God first in your life? If someone didn't know you, could they tell by the way that you spend your time that God is a priority in your life? Luke 9:51-62 (Sunday Prayers for Teens, LTP 2015-2016)

On the Way Home from Mass - What kind of person do you think left everything to follow Jesus?

Prayer/Reflection:

Most Generous God, you created this world as a sign of your endless love and desire to share good with all your creatures. Help us to turn from our thoughtless consumption of the earth's resources meant for all, so that we may better serve you by living more simply and caring for those who are most vulnerable to the destruction of our common home. Amen

Quote from the Holy See:

"We are not faced with two separate crises, one environmental and the other social, but rather one complex crisis which is both social and environmental. Strategies for a solution demand an integrated approach to combating poverty, restoring dignity to the underprivileged and at the same time protecting nature."
 -Pope Francis, Laudato Si, no 139

Called for freedom

No yoke of slavery for us. Even though people are shackled, suppressed, oppressed – and even though I may be, too – we are, called for freedom. Christ, in his Paschal Mystery, his death and rising, has set us free. Baptism makes us new and sets us free. The old and the new law – "love your neighbor as yourself" – set us free. Singing the song for the gathering of the gifts during the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper this past (and every) Holy Thursday – Ubi Caritas – sets us free.

What yoke will I step out of to be free?

Who can I help into freedom in this Mercy Year?

Who will I love ... as myself?
