Coming Improvements to the Church
I'm sure many of you have noticed the current church carpet is in need of replacement. Now that the painting is complete, new carpet will be installed in the choir loft and stairs the week of July 25. The rest of the church will get new carpet the week of August 8. I am thankful to have such a beautiful church to honor God, and many of our parishioners have expressed similar feelings to me.

With new carpet being installed, we had to make a decision about the location of the choir and musicians going forward. After consultation with Parish Council, staff, and many of our musicians and cantors, the strong majority felt that it was better to have the musicians in the choir loft. A variety of reasons were given for this change. Our church is designed acoustically for the sound to carry from the choir loft to the rest of the church. Many musicians feel more comfortable singing from the back rather than the front. The seating up front limited the choir's ability to sing during Mass and was not ideal in relation to the seating of the rest of the congregation.

I am confident that this change will benefit our music program and will be more conducive to the worship and adoration of God. Our parish is very engaged in the liturgy, and I think that will continue moving forward.

God Bless
