Benefits of Eucharistic Adorations:

A Holy Hour in front of the Blessed Sacrament is worth more than a thousand years of human glory. (St. Padre Pio)

Most Rev Dennis M. Schnurr

Every Catholic should know the definition of a sacrament as “an outward sign instituted by Christ to give grace.” And what is grace? The “Catechism of the Catholic Church” calls grace “participation in the life of God.” That is a font that never runs dry. Moreover, the grace poured out by the Holy Spirit in the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist, Reconciliation, Holy Orders, Matrimony and Anointing of the Sick does not only bless and enrich the recipient, it has bountiful effects on the rest of the community as well.

Priests, for example, are not bestowed Holy Orders for their own benefit, but to empower them to celebrate the sacraments and preach the Gospel to others in the name of the Church. The lay faithful, in turn, support them with their prayers and apostolates in accordance with their own vocations.

On May 18, I was privileged to ordain by the laying on of hands nine new priests for our archdiocese, the most in four decades. That such a large number answered God's call with a generous “yes” was only possible through the graces they already received through regular reception of the sacraments. At the same time, they also benefited from the loving help of grace-filled friends and family over the long years of preparation for priesthood.

The number of seminarians at the Athenaeum of Ohio – Mount St. Mary's Seminary of the West in Mt. Washington doubled from 2010 to 2017 and is expected to double again by 2024. In addition, the Athenaeum provides excellent formation for those preparing for the diaconate and lay pastoral ministry. An outward sign of our recent and expected future growth is the new building nearing completion at the seminary.

In these challenging times for the Church in the United States and around the world, we continue to see manifold signs of God's grace at work in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati.
