Have you heard about the woman who died and left $13 million dollars to her cat? It's a weird and sad story but a good reminder that saving up money or things doesn't get us where we need to be in terms of eternity. You really can't take it with you! Today's Gospel reminds us to be ready for Jesus. We should store up good deeds and faithful living. In what ways are you already living the life God ask of you? What do you still need to do to become a faithful servant of God?

Luke 12:35-40 (Sunday Prayers for Teens, LTP 2015-2016)

On the Way Home from Mass—What does the Master want us to do as we await his return? Why does he not tell us when it will be? (Celebrating Sunday's for Catholic Families 2015-16, LTP).

BEGINNING AGAIN: May the God of BEGINNING AGAIN be with you. May that God hold you near as you grieve what is past and move with faith into what is to be. May the hand of God carry you across the darkness of loss into light. May your courage and your trust become for those around you a living witness to the mystery of death and rising. May the God of BEGINNING AGAIN bless you.

STEWARDSHIP AND GIVING

Stewardship is our grateful response to God’s call and gift to us. We live this call in three key dimensions every day, exercising Stewardship of Creation, Stewardship of Vocations, and Stewardship of the Church’s Mission.
Stewardship is not “all about the money,” though prayerful and careful stewardship of financial resources is integral to practicing stewardship as a way of life

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time –

Hard but clear words today. Jesus tells his beloved “little flock” – that includes us – to sell belongings and give alms. Do not be afraid. Sell. Give. Yet, we are sometimes afraid to let go, to give away. I really like this, we say. I might need it later, we say. Since we are numbered among his disciples, what Jesus said to Peter and to the rest of the Followers, he says to us:

- Do not fear!
- Give alms! Be ready to act for the benefit of others; be ready to do what is good!
- So, this week, I will _____!

FORMED Save That Date!

The Office of Evangelization and Catechesis, in conjunction with the producers of FORMED, is planning a Diocesan FORMED Evangelization Conference for late summer. The conference is designed to help parishes subscribed to FORMED to most effectively implement FORMED in their parish. It will attempt to provide relevant and practical training to help parish leaders be successful in reaching the hearts and minds of modern men and women through their specific parish ministries. This is for all parish and school-based religion teachers, DRE’s, CRE’s, Catechetical leaders, Coordinators, Youth Ministers, Marriage Coordinators, Baptismal Coordinators, and volunteers simply interested in learning more. Learn to make FORMED a fruitful experience in your parish! The Diocesan FORMED Evangelization Conference will be facilitated by experts from the Augustine Institute with years of experience in parish and diocesan work as well as hands-on experience creating FORMED and helping parishes across the country implement FORMED.
