LOGAN COUNTY PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL MEETING SUMMARY

The Logan County Parish Pastoral Council met Tuesday, July 26th at 7:00 p.m. in the St. Pat's conference room with 9 of the 12 members present. Fr. Shawn led us in opening prayer and there were no parishioners present to address the Council.

The amendment to our Code of Regulations to allow for a joint meeting (if necessary) between Logan and Champaign Counties was approved. Champaign County already had this in their by-laws and now both Parish Pastoral Councils are operating by the same rules.

Parish Council also discussed Family Vision Statements for the four Beacon's of Light Visioning Tools (Evangelization Principle, Love in Action Principle, Church Principle, and Eucharist Principle). When these are complete, we will work on action plans to help Fr. Shawn guide our Parishes forward.

Fr. Shawn updated the Council on the construction delay to the hotel across the street from SMOW. Apparently, there is an issue with an easement. Fr. Shawn forwarded the information on to the archdiocesan attorneys. On a good note, we will be permitted to place Catholic Bibles in each hotel room.

Father gave us his blessing and the meeting concluded at 8:36 p.m.

Dear St. Mary of the Woods and St. Patrick Parishioners:

It was a joy to be with you the weekend of July 29-30 and to experience your deep faith as we celebrated the Eucharistic liturgy. Thank you so much for your generous response to our mission appeal on behalf of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth.

Be assured that we will remember the parishioners of St. Mary of the Woods and St. Patrick in our prayers. May Christ continue to strengthen your faith and bless you always with His loving presence and peace.

Sincerely,
Marilyn Shea, SCN

FEAST DAY OF SAINT BARTHOLOMEW, APOSTLE - AUGUST 24TH

St. Bartholomew, a doctor in the Jewish law, was a dear friend of St. Philip the Apostle. Because Bartholomew was a man “in whom there was no guile,” his mind was open to the truth. He went willingly with Philip to see Christ, and recognized the Savior immediately as the Son of God. After having received the gifts of the Holy Spirit on the first Pentecost, Bartholomew evangelized Asia Minor, northwestern India, and Greater Armenia. In the latter country, while preaching to idolaters, he was arrested and condemned to death.

In St. John’s Gospel, Bartholomew is known by the name Nathaniel (the liturgy does not always seem aware of this identity). He hailed from Cana in Galilee, was one of the first disciples called by the Lord. On that initial meeting, Jesus uttered the glorious compliment: “Behold, an Israelite indeed in whom there is no guile!” After the Resurrection, he was favored by becoming one of the few apostles who witnessed the appearance of the Risen Savior on the Sea of Galilee (John 21:2). Following the Ascension, he is said to have preached in Greater Armenia and to have been martyred there. While still alive, his skin was torn from his body. The Armenians honor him as the apostle of their nation. Concerning the fate of his relics, the Martyrology says: “His holy body was first taken to the island of Lipari (north of Sicily), then to Benevento, and finally to Rome on an island in the Tiber where it is honored by the faithful with pious devotion.”
