“Going to church doesn't make you a Christian any more than sitting in a garage makes you a car.” Have you ever heard that expression? Jesus reminds us not to take heaven for granted and to keep working toward holiness. The “narrow gate” that he talks about is the way of selflessness and of imitating our Savior in knowing God and loving our neighbor. Jesus teaches that we can't make assumptions just because we call ourselves Christian. How are you truly living out your Christian promises? Are you following Jesus' example? Take time this week to reflect on the ways you live your faith. Luke 13:22-24, 28-30. (Sunday Prayers for Teens, LTP 2015-2016)

On the Way Home from Mass –How well do you know Jesus? What can you do to know him better? (Celebrating Sunday's for Catholic Families 2015-16, LTP).

Rest in the Peace of Christ : Father Patrick Sheridan, our beloved pastor and our parishioners: Kathleen A. Wilcoxon, John Entelisano and Patricia Woolf, who passed on to glory and are remembered with love and held in our prayers.

Civilize It: Faithful Citizenship in the Year of Mercy

The question "How do we live in the Year of Mercy when it's an election year?" This is one to which the Civilize It Movement can offer an answer.

Civilize It is a non-partisan response developed in the Archdiocese and designed to guide Catholics on how they can be civil and engaged during this election year while responding to Jesus' call to love our neighbor. The presentation will look at how the Church forms its conscience through Scripture and Church teaching as articulated in the U.S. bishops' statement, Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship. It will strengthen Catholics to call for more civility, clarity and compassion in electoral politics and from each other.

The Catholic Social Action and Family and Respect Life Offices will be offering the Civilize It: Faithful Citizenship in the Year of Mercy presentation in Springfield at St. Teresa of the Child Jesus Tuesday, August 23, from 7-9 p.m. in Fr. Collins Hall in the church basement at 1827 N. Limestone Ave. This is a free presentation and open to all Catholics. For more information call Pam Long, regional director of the Catholic Social Action Office Dayton at 937-224-3026 ext. 5018 or email plong@catholiccincinnati.org
