Marriage, Youth & Family News

Jesus is teaching the difficult demands that involve being his disciple. When he speaks of "hating" relatives, he surely didn't mean this literally. We can think of this as creating some balance in loving, and not loving anything or anyone to the exclusion of loving God. In Semitic idiom, to "hate" means to "love less" rather than a lack of love. It isn't easy to be a disciple, and it takes giving up attachments to possessions as well as commitment. Luke 14:25-33 (Celebrating Sunday for Catholic Families 2016-17)

On the Way Home from Mass –Jesus said that it is not easy to be his disciple. What did you hear him say about making choices? (Celebrating Sunday's for Catholic Families 2016-17, LTP).
