EVER HAVE THE TIME by Liam Lawton

This is about time...Nothing is as precious to us as time. As we grow older we begin to appreciate its preciousness, and how time passed can never be regained. One of the greatest gifts to give another is the gift of time.

If I could count my blessings with my hands
 If I could speak the words your heart would understand
 If I could know the things that I should know
 Is there something that love has left to show?
 If I could read the wisdom of your mind
 If I could search the heavens for a sign
 If I could only treasure all that’s mine
 I wonder if I’ll ever have the time

‘Cause time will wait for no one in the end
 Time goes on without you, on that you can depend
 And though you may be wondering where it ends
 You can save it, you can lose it
 You can chase it, you can choose it
 You can be its victim or its friend

If I could turn your darkness into day
 If I could stop all beauty from decay
 If I could be the person that you need
 I should listen to your longings and take heed
 If I could learn that time will never last
 I should savour all the memories of the past
 If I could only treasure all that’s mine
 I wonder if I’ll ever have the time

In the end love outlasts all-time
 In the end love will never die.

Time You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel.” - EZEKIEL 33:7

Many of us are generous with our gifts. However, how often is our generosity at the minimum level required? We do just enough or give just enough. Remember, the Lord calls us to be generous with all the gifts He has given us, to grow them and return them with increase.
