24th Sunday in Ordinary Time “Everything I have is yours.” (Luke 15:31) Our Heavenly Father gives us everything, including the chance to share in His eternal kingdom. Yet, like the Prodigal Son we are often lured away by the materialism of our society. Do we really want to turn our backs on all that God offers in exchange for a material wealth that has no lasting value?

Marriage, Youth & Family News

When the scribes and Pharisees complain that Jesus eats with sinners, Jesus demonstrates through parables that God loves the sinner who repents. In the shepherd who found his sheep, Jesus portrays an understanding God. It is not surprise that Jesus’ critics do not understand that saving what is lost causes more rejoicing than simple faithfulness. God is merciful to those who return yet supportive of those who are already followers. Luke 15:1-7 (Celebrating Sunday for Catholic Families 2016-17)

On the Way Home from Mass –If you lost something really important to you, what would you do to find it? Would you pray about it? (Celebrating Sunday's for Catholic Families 2016-17, LTP).
