Celebrate Recovery

Christ-based 12-step program offers relief from life’s hurts and hang-ups. Celebrate Recovery meets every Friday, 7 p.m. at Union Station, 613 Hamilton St.

A group of local churches have come together to bring a nationally respected resource to Logan County’s fight against substance abuse and other negative behaviors.

The initial concerns were on the opiate problem in Logan County and the deaths attributed to that, however, there are many other hurts, habits and hang-ups that are causing great harm to people in Logan County and that through Christ we can help.

Addition information about the local Celebrate Recovery program is available at info@crlogancounty.org and anyone may attend the Friday evening meetings.

Constant Companion...loneliness May you be blessed with an awareness of God when you are LONELY. When the “empty chair” looms large in your life and you long for relationship and connection, may you look for God who comes to sit with you...in the guise of a child or the person in need or the neighbor who inquires. May you also find God in the reflection in your mirror—always inviting, always longing to be in relationship with you. May God, CONSTANT COMPANION, bless you always. By Maxine Shonk, OP
