Marriage, Youth & Family

In Luke's account of the journey to Emmaus, the Risen Jesus joins the disciples as they walk along the road. The disciples only recognize him in the breaking of the bread. This story has more than one theme. We hear of the disciples' hospitality as they invite Jesus to dine with them. Jesus blesses the bread and breaks it and gives it to the disciples. With this, their eyes were opened and they recognized him. How does the Eucharist open your eyes? (Celebrating Sunday for Catholic Families 2016-17, LTP)

On the Way Home from Mass: Jesus is with us, but differently than in the Gospel story. How is Jesus alive and among us today? (Celebrating Sunday's for Catholic Families 2016-17, LTP)

FAITH May the God of FAITH be with you, sending you miracles and teaching you to expect them. May God show you things that can be seen only in the darkness. May your faith see you through the unknowns in your life, calling you to trust the unseen presence of God in them. May your faith serve as a beacon to light the way for other pilgrims on the way. May the blessing of FAITH be upon you. By Maxine Shonk, OP

This Sunday is the Catholic Relief Services collection. The theme this year is HELP JESUS IN DISGUISE

- In families striving to stay intact through adversity. Let us see Christ.
- In the poor and lowly of the world. Let us see Christ.
- In those forced to leave their home because of war or famine. Let us see Christ.
- In children who go to bed hungry and who cannot attend school. Let us see Christ.
- In those who are living with HIV/AIDS and other diseases. Let us see Christ.
- In immigrants and refugees seeking freedom and hope. Let us see Christ.
- In those who are orphaned or abandoned. Let us see Christ.
- In the elderly who are forgotten. Let us see Christ.
- In those who struggle to find meaningful work. Let us see Christ.
- In those who work for justice and peace for all people. Let us see Christ.

LET US PRAY.

Jesus, teach us to recognize your presence in those who are in need. May we give of ourselves in service to them and so hasten the coming of the Kingdom you have promised, where you live with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. AMEN.
