The Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord (colloquially known as Ascension Thursday or Ascension Day) is one of the great solemnities in the Christian liturgical calendar, and commemorates the bodily ascension of Jesus into heaven. Ascension Day is traditionally celebrated on a Thursday, the fortieth day of Easter. However, some Roman Catholic provinces have moved the observance to the following Sunday. The feast is one of the ecumenical feasts (i.e., universally celebrated), ranking with the feasts of the Passion, of Easter, and Pentecost

DANCE May the Spirit of God DANCE with you, moving with you to the music of your experiences. May you know God in step with you through every change of rhythm and song, every dip and pirouette. May you learn to follow God's lead in your life and become a mentor and model of those on the dance floor with you. May you DANCE with the Spirit of God all your days.

Marriage, Youth & Family News

Jesus provides an eloquent farewell message, before his agony in the garden. He speaks tenderly to God, and he talks about their relationship as divine begins. It is evident that Jesus wants to return to the glory that was once his, shared with the Father and the Holy Spirit. The last Sunday of Easter demonstrates to us that we live today in the already-but- the-not-yet: we live in tension between our flawed human nature and the need for God to provide eternal salvation. Jesus' prayer resonated this reality. (Celebrating Sunday for Catholic Families 2016-17)

On the Way Home from Mass - Sowing and sprouting for Jesus, we are gardeners for God. How can we grow and harvest followers? (Celebrating Sunday's for Catholic Families 2016-17, LTP)
