Ashley Roberts, Director of Religious Education...

I wanted to take the opportunity to give a little introduction of myself. My first few days here as DRE have been very enjoyable and I have been very glad to meet those of you of whom I have had the chance!

I hail from the greater Cleveland area (Ashland), by way, most recently, of Russia. I graduated from college with a degree in music education and served in the Ansonia Local Schools, teaching band and choir to grades 5-12. After seven years, I changed paths and pursued full-time graduate studies in theology from Christendom. The time of study for my masters was a wonderful experience. So many times I would think to myself, "I can't believe I get to do this!" I am genuinely looking forward to sharing that learning with others, grateful for having been so abundantly built up myself in the faith.

Thank you so much for your generous welcome. I have had so many offers of help and so many expressions of hospitality! I truly appreciate them, each and all. Please feel free to contact me about the faith formation program if at any time you have the need. I look forward to meeting you!

Sincerely, Ashley Roberts

Patrick Blenman, Seminarian... I am a seminarian going into my fourth year of college seminary for for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. I study at Bishop Simon Brute College Seminary in Indianapolis, Indiana. I am so blessed to be here at St. Patrick and I cannot wait to become more involved and get to know all of you here in the parish. I grew up just across the county line in Sidney, Ohio. I come from a family of 6 with my parents, a twin brother, older brother, and older sister. I graduated from Lehman Catholic High School in Sidney in 2014 and entered college seminary right after graduation. Some things I enjoy doing are hanging out with friends, meeting new people, watching movies, riding my bike, and being able to be present to the needs of God people. If you see me around the parish or around town, please do not hesitate to come over and say hello, ask for prayers, or just want to talk. I will be giving two talks here at St. Patrick over the summer. The first talk will be "Meet the Seminarian", in which you will be able to get to know me better and learn more about vocations, especially to the priesthood. The second talk is entitled "God's Calling; Vocation and His Love" which will cover God's call for us to relationship with Him. The dates for the talks are as follows:

Talk #1: June 11th, at 11:15AM: Meet the Seminarian
Talk #2: July 9th, at 11:15AM: God's Calling; Vocation and His Love. Refreshments will be provided.

If you can make it out for these talks, I would love to have you. Thank you all so much and I cannot wait to get a chance to serve you this summer.

In Christ Through His Sacred Heart, Patrick Blenman.

Marriage, Youth & Family News

There was awe but probably fear, too, when Jesus appeared to his disciples, despite locked doors. We take note of Jesus' greeting, "Peace be with you," because the disciples were so troubled about the Jews. It resonates with hope for good health, prosperity, and calmness. The image of Jesus breathing on the disciples is reminiscent of the "holy breathing" that the bishop does when he consecrates the chrism every year. That "breath" represents the indwelling of God, breaking into our present. (Celebrating Sunday for Catholic Families 2016-17)

PENTECOST—Urgent Prayer. We call Pentecost the birthday of the Church. But instead of cake and candles and the standard song, we gather around bread and wine with the Illumined One and sing our great prayer of Thanksgiving—the Eucharist. We then eat and drink wine and bread transformed. And we are transformed, we are changed—again. So Pentecost is really about urgent prayer. Urgent prayer to be Church. Urgent prayer to be changed. Urgent prayer to be taught by and filled with the good and Holy Spirit.
