Please also let us know if you plan to move from the parish.

Please, remember our parish in your will.

WEEKEND MASS ATTENDANCE:

Music for Funerals

Because the funeral Mass is a liturgy, the music chosen needs to be music that is appropriate for liturgy. The family can select hymns to give a specific focus or songs that are particular favorites or that have special meaning for them. Any song from the parish liturgical repertoire is appropriate. Some music speaks thematically to the resurrection or consolation focus of a funeral liturgy and is frequently chosen by families for funerals. Many times families want to select secular songs that are not suitable for liturgy. These may be used at the reception following the funeral. Since there is no liturgical context for the reception, non-religious music can be used there.

PEACE CORNER GOODNESS

May God bless you and make you holy in those places of shame in you where you want to hide your face so you cannot be seen. In those places may you experience God's Spirit gently uncovering what is hidden, receiving all of who you are and embracing it with love and mercy. May God complete the incomplete in you so that she might partner with you in bringing peace and healing to the world. May you entrust yourself to this god, this Spirit of GOODNESS, and may you be blessed all your days.
