God our Father,
In Your wisdom and love You have created us and called us Your own. Bless our fathers, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. In moments of joy, rejoice with them. In times of struggle, give them Your courage and perseverance. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor and appreciate them always with a spirit of profound respect. May the example and prayer of St. Joseph inspire them to live their vocation with courage. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

MEET FATHER JARRED KOHN

My name is Fr. Jarred Kohn, and I am very excited to be joining the Mary, Queen of Angels Family of Parishes come July. I was born in Coldwater, Ohio and while I would eventually graduate from Coldwater High School in 2008, I spent the vast majority of my childhood – leading up to entering seminary – living outside of Philothea (a small town in between Coldwater and St. Henry). My parents are Gerry and Connie Kohn who still live in the same house I grew up in and I have one sister named Larissa. She and her husband, Eric, live with their 4 children (3 boys and 1 girl) a short distance from Coldwater. I enjoy the time I get to spend with them. Growing up, priesthood did not cross my mind. Like most boys, I wanted to be an astronaut or a farmer. As I continued through middle and high school, I decided to concentrate on welding trades as my post-high school career. During high school, I both wrestled and ran track (most of my attention went towards wrestling).

Following high school, I entered the work force as a welder for Crown Equipment in New Bremen. In that year, I began attending a weekly Holy Hour with my friends and from a very sudden encounter with the Lord in the midst of Eucharistic Adoration, I felt the Lord calling me to the priesthood. After some deliberation and help from priests and others, I entered seminary in the fall of 2009 and I was ordained on May 19, 2018.

After ordination, I served as parochial vicar of the Petersburg Parishes from 2018-2020, then as pastor of Holy Angels in Sidney from 2020-2022, and eventually as pastor of St. Joseph, Pillar of Families, from 2022 to present. I will be joining all of you on July 5, as I will be on vacation in Utah and Arizona from June 25-July 5.

My favorite saints are St. Josemaria Escriva and St. Therese of Lisieux. (Our Lady clearly has the top spot, but that goes without saying.) I find these saints to have been my closest friends and collaborators throughout seminary and my priesthood. As a priest, I love to celebrate the sacraments (especially Mass and Confession), attempt to seek the intimacy with Jesus Christ that He desires to have with His priests, and I treasure getting to be a part of peoples' lives in the sacraments and the everyday moments and events of life. I enjoy visiting family and my godchildren and their families in my free time, along with reading, shooting guns, running, and hiking. I look forward to meeting all of you and developing friendships with you all, as we seek the Lord together.
