Prayers for Teens:

Ask. Seek. Knock. Blow up God's phone with messages about all the things you need. Are you lonely? Tell God about that and ask for help finding good friends. Are you confused? Ask God to help you find clarity and understanding what direction you need to go. Prayer isn't just about asking God to give us what we want or need. Though. It can also take the form of praising God: "Father, hallowed be your name." It can be about seeking forgiveness. "and forgive us our sins/for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us." We can tell God how much we love him, and thank him for all his blessings. Don't be afraid to pour out your heart to your heavenly Father. The habits of prayer and trusting in God help us grow in ways we can't even imagine. Luke 11:1-4 (Sunday Prayers for Teens, LTP 2015-2016)

On the Way Home from Mass –What do you ask from God in the Lord's Prayer?

(Celebrating Sunday's for Catholic Families 2015-16, LTP).

Red Cross Blood Drive! Thank you to all the volunteers, donors, and supporters of this project. You have made a huge difference in many lives.

Pope Francis on the Field of Mercy: (Adapted from TCT July 2016, by Sean Reynolds, D.Min.) On July 25-31, Pope Francis will make a pilgrimage with hundreds of young people to World Youth Day (WYD), in Krakow, Poland. The theme at WYD Krakow is "Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy." (Mt 5:7) At the last WYD in Brazil, Pope Francis asked the young people "with all my Heart" to read the Beatitudes and to make them the action plan for their lives. Let us pray that our hearts might be fertile fields of mercy, not temporary but with lasting and lifelong missions of mercy. With Pope Francis and the young pilgrims to Poland, let us pray the prayer of St. Faustina: "Help me, O Lord,

...that my eyes may be merciful, so that I will never be suspicious or judge by appearance, but always look for what is beautiful in my neighbors' souls and be of help to them;

...That my ears may be merciful, so that I will be attentive to my neighbors' needs, and not indifferent to their pains and complaints:

...that my tongue may be merciful, so that I will never speak badly of others, but have a word of comfort and forgiveness for all;

...that my hands may be merciful and full of good deeds;

...that my feet may be merciful, so that I will hasten to help my neighbor, despite my own fatigue and weariness;

...that my heart may be merciful, so that I myself will share in all the sufferings of my neighbors" (Diary, 163)

Prayer/Reflection:

Gracious Father, You make the rain fall and the sun shine. Bless our crops and tillers of the soil during this sowing season as we strive to feed Your children and care for Your creation. Amen.

Quote from the Holy See:

"The climate is a common good, belonging to all and meant for all. At the global level, it is a complex system linked to many of the essential conditions for human life." --- Pope Francis, Laudato Si', no.139

FORMED Save That Date!

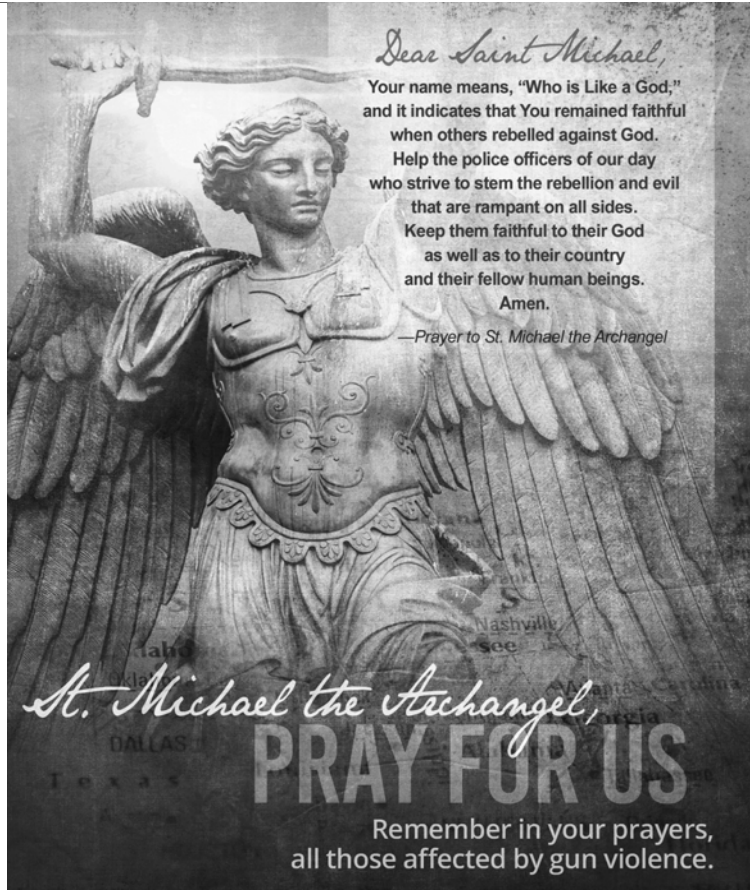

The Office of Evangelization and Catechesis, in conjunction with the producers of FORMED, is planning a Diocesan FORMED Evangelization Conference for late summer. The conference is designed to help parishes subscribed to FORMED to most effectively implement FORMED in their parish. It will attempt to provide relevant and practical training to help parish leaders be successful in reaching the hearts and minds of modern men and women through their specific parish ministries. This is for all parish and school-based religion teachers, DRE's, CRE's, Catechetical leaders, Coordinators, Youth Ministers, Marriage Coordinators, Baptismal Coordinators, and volunteers simply interested in learning more. Learn to make FORMED a fruitful experience in your parish! The Diocesan FORMED Evangelization Conference will be facilitated by experts from the Augustine Institute with years of experience in parish and diocesan work as well as hands-on experience creating FORMED and helping parishes across the country implement FORMED.
