Prayers for Teens:

Do you know of anyone who buys bigger homes just because their current one can't hold all the stuff they already have? That's what the rich man in the parable does - he builds bigger barns so that he has a place to keep everything he has, and then some. Make a list of all the ways someone could be rich, such as having money, talents, friends. Come up with as many forms of wealth as you can. Now go back and circle the ones that you think matter to God. Are there any you left out from your original list? Revise it to include them. Next, turn that list into a prayer. Ask God to help you seek out the things that really matter. Write a prayer that will help you avoid storing up the wrong kind of treasure. Luke 12:13-21 (Sunday Prayers for Teens, LTP 2015-2016)

On the Way Home from Mass –How do we know when we have too much? What if we have little - does it mean God cares about us less?

(Celebrating Sunday's for Catholic Families 2015-16, LTP).

Into a world that is often cold and dark may your own warmth bring with it the light of God's presence May the god of WARMTH bless you.

STEWARDSHIP AND GIVING

Stewardship is our grateful response to God's call and gift to us. We live this call in three key dimensions every day, exercising Stewardship of Creation, Stewardship of Vocations, and Stewardship of the Church's Mission. Stewardship is not "all about the money," though prayerful and careful stewardship of financial resources is integral to practicing stewardship as a way of life

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 31 July 2016

Don't be hard hearted. We have all heard stories of relatives who fight over an estate or a supposed inheritance. Luke recounts the Jesus parable of packing away so many possessions in order to "rest, eat, drink, be merry!" It is Jesus who said to the crowd, and says to us today: "One's life does not consist in possessions." On hearing Christ, the logical philosopher lays out this syllogism: (1) Guard against all greed; (2) because life does not consist of possessions; (3) therefore, give away somethings, some time, some effort, some of self.

- What things can I give away?
- What time and effort can I expend to another?
- How will I reuse, use up, recycle?

FORMED Save That Date!

The Office of Evangelization and Catechesis, in conjunction with the producers of FORMED, is planning a Diocesan FORMED Evangelization Conference for late summer. The conference is designed to help parishes subscribed to FORMED to most effectively implement FORMED in their parish. It will attempt to provide relevant and practical training to help parish leaders be successful in reaching the hearts and minds of modern men and women through their specific parish ministries. This is for all parish and school-based religion teachers, DRE's, CRE's, Catechetical leaders, Coordinators, Youth Ministers, Marriage Coordinators, Baptismal Coordinators, and volunteers simply interested in learning more. Learn to make FORMED a fruitful experience in your parish! The Diocesan FORMED Evangelization Conference will be facilitated by experts from the Augustine Institute with years of experience in parish and diocesan work as well as hands-on experience creating FORMED and helping parishes across the country implement FORMED.
