WEEKEND MASS ATTENDANCE: 356

Blessed is she who believed...Belief in the assumption of Mary goes back to at least the fourth century, when Epiphanius of Salamis first speculated that because of her role in bringing the Word-made-flesh into the world, God did not allow her body to experience the corruption of the grave. Shortly after his writing, a large number of apocryphal texts were composed narrating various versions of the story of her assumption.

As Pope Pius XII writes, "It is our hope that belief in Mary's bodily Assumption into heaven will make our belief in our own resurrection stronger" (MD 42). May we, her loving children, follow her example of service, that we too might share in God's gift of everlasting life.

PEACE CORNER PROTECTIVE LOVE

May God bless you in your fragility. When you stand defenseless in a world of domination and when your spirit is naked and vulnerable to force beyond you, may you experience the cloak of God gently placed round your shoulders. May you be covered and protected by truth and goodness, and may you be wrapped in a realization of the power of God's immense love for the least ones in and around you. May you be blessed by God's protective love.

Sister Maxine Shonk, OP

That all families may teach their children respect for life at all ages, we pray
