Marriage, Youth & Family News

The rich man in the Gospel valued his wealth to the exclusion of all else. He neglected both charity and social responsibility. The parable Rest in the Peace of Christ : Father Patrick Sheridan, our beloved pastor and our parishioners: Kathleen A. Wilcoxon, John Entelisano and Patricia Woolf, who passed on to glory and are remembered with love and held in our prayers.

demonstrates how a situation can literally change overnight when Abraham, in the afterlife, refuses mercy to a rich man who rejected the need of others during his earthly life. The description of justice may seem harsh, with Abraham as the spokesman, but the point of righteous living is clear. Lazarus gained God's heavenly mercy as reward for his suffering. Luke 16; 19-25 (Celebrating Sunday for Catholic Families 2016-17)

On the Way Home from Mass –Pope Francis declared a Jubilee Year of Mercy from December 8, 2015, to November 20, 2016. How do we act mercifully to our classmates and members of our family? (Celebrating Sunday's for Catholic Families 2016-17, LTP).

GOD OF WISDOM: May you be blessed with the WISDOM of God who fills your heart with vision so that you may see all things with the eyes of God. May you have the wisdom and knowledge to discern God's desire. May you be drawn to a deeper awareness of God's activity in your life. May you give voice to that wisdom as you enter into communion with all God's people. May the God of WISDOM bless you.

Pray for our Seminarians!

Mount Saint Mary Seminary in Cincinnati welcomes 25 new men this year into major seminary! 16 of those men are studying for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati and 9 are studying for other dioceses or religious orders. There have been many years where the Archdiocese of Cincinnati has had 2-4 seminarians in an individual class, so these numbers represent a large increase the number of seminarians. Let us thank God for the blessing of these vocations!
 The formation in major seminary lasts 5 to 7 years depending on how much course work each individual needs to cover. Please pray for our seminarians that they can have a clear knowledge of God's will for their lives and the courage to follow it. May God continue to bless our Archdiocese with holy priests!

2016 Family Rosary Rally: Sunday, October 9, 2016, at UD Arena, Prelude Music: 2:30 PM, 3-4 PM Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Live Rosary & Benediction— Father Chris Worland, Dean of the Dayton Deanery.

REFLECTION FROM GOSPEL: Most often we think of ourselves as rich people sharing our resources with those in need, and indeed, that is what we, as Christians, are called to do. But have we ever been the one being served? Perhaps we have not found it necessary to receive material goods from others, but what have others given us out of generosity in the form of time, energy, or actions. Maybe someone sat with us when one of our children was sick, or helped us with some physical chore when our burden was too heavy to carry alone. It might even be a coach or teacher who has helped our children in a generous way. How can the actions of these people help us better live this Gospel message today? What can we give of ourselves?
