Jesus responds to the Apostles' request by pointing out that a tiny mustard seed grows to greatness, even though the magnificent mulberry tree has vast, deep roots. It only takes a small amount of faith, then, to accomplish great things. The Apostles don't necessarily need a vast, deep faith, they need a strong faith. Jesus holds up the servant for admiration because the servant did all that was asked of him. Whether or not the servant was expected to cook and serve and plow is not as important as his clear discipleship, his "yes." Luke 17; 5-10 (Celebrating Sunday for Catholic Families 2016-17)

LISTENING: May the LISTENING God embrace you. May your voice become true and clear in the presence of the God who listens. May you come close to the ear of God and entrust your deepest secrets, the unspeakable and the unresolved, the tender truth of your devotion and the fragile residue of the fear in your heart. May the Spirit pray in you as you open yourself up in God's hearing. May God the LISTENER bless you. Sr Maxine Shonk, OP

Pray for our Seminarians!

Mount Saint Mary Seminary in Cincinnati welcomes 25 new men this year into major seminary! 16 of those men are studying for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati and 9 are studying for other dioceses or religious orders. There have been many years where the Archdiocese of Cincinnati has had 2-4 seminarians in an individual class, so these numbers represent a large increase the number of seminarians. Let us thank God for the blessing of these vocations!
 The formation in major seminary lasts 5 to 7 years depending on how much course work each individual needs to cover. Please pray for our seminarians that they can have a clear knowledge of God's will for their lives and the courage to follow it. May God continue to bless our Archdiocese with holy priests!

World Mission Sunday is observed on October 16, 2016. World Mission Sunday is a day set aside for the Catholic Church throughout the world to publicly renew its commitment to the missionary movement. It is celebrated on the third Sunday of October every year. It was created by Pope Pius XI in 1926 as the day of prayer and propaganda of missions.

Today's Gospel: Luke 5, 33-39 One day my wife cooked a new recipe, a special dish for our lunch. Our oldest son, looked at the dish, twisted his nose and said: "What is this?" My wife answered: "Artichoke, eat, it is very healthy!" He answered "I don't like it," and my wife responded "How can you not like if you haven't even tasted it?" Our lunch was wonderful, but my son wouldn't even touch his food. How many times we don't try something new? Try a new dish, a new spice? Change our route from office to home? Change places at the dinner table? We make small rules, routines that we end up using without any reason, and repeating actions because we think it's best. "I always did it like this, and it always worked." The rules of the Pharisees and Teachers of the Law were like that; for example: on the Sabbath, you couldn't tie your sandals. There were over 300 rules, preached for a long time from the doctors of the law, forming a doctrine that the Hebrew people respected without questioning. However, Jesus was the new wine, preaching the Gospel, freedom, joy and love. A new lifestyle that didn't match the rules from the Pharisees and the doctors of the law, it was the piece of new fabric that did not fit in old clothes. As Pope Francis says about this text: "Jesus disapproved of these people, these doctors of the law who made his people become slaves to the rules they had to obey." He adds: "The Church asks some changes of all of us, asks us to leave aside outdated structures."

So we have to keep our minds open to receive Jesus' Gospel, and in this way, transform ourselves
