STEWARDSHIP: Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time Weekend of October 10-11, 2015

Jesus offers a hard lesson regarding wealth and possessions in today's Gospel. The rich man whom he encountered could not part with his possessions as a condition to becoming a disciple of Jesus. Would our response be the same as the rich man? Do we place our trust in our money and possessions instead of trusting in God's generosity? Do we seek security in our possessions? Good stewards realize that their possessions must not possess them, lest those possessions block their relationship with the Lord.

PEACE CORNER RE-CREATION

May God bless you when you experience yourself as defiled and dirty, when you are marred and damaged through abuse or trauma. At those times may you remember that it was from the dust of the earth that creation came to be. It is from the dirt that seed comes to flower and grain grows and feeds. May you experience the soil from which you come not as dirty but as rich and fertile in the hands of such an ingenious God. May the God of RE-CREATION bless you. Sister Maxine Shonk, OP

That more religious and political leaders may courageously speak out in defense of life, we pray
